

LLANNON COMMUNITY COUNCIL

STRESS MANAGEMENT POLICY

ADOPTED: 26th July 2023

REVIEW DATE: June 2026

Stress Management Policy

Introduction

Llannon Community Council is committed to protecting the health, safety and welfare of its employees. Workplace stress is a health and safety issue and the importance of identifying and reducing the causes is acknowledged.

The policy applies to all employees and those designated as line managers are responsible for the implementation of the policy and the Council is responsible for providing the necessary resources.

Definition of stress

The Health and Safety Executive defines stress as 'the adverse reaction people have to excessive pressure or other types of demand placed on them'. This makes an important distinction between pressure, which can be a positive state if managed correctly, and stress which can be detrimental to health.

The effects of long-term stress can be seen in physical, intellectual, emotional and behavioural signs.

Physical signs	Intellectual signs
Headaches Crying Tension Indigestion Breathlessness Nausea (feeling sick) Tiredness/can't relax. Weight gain/loss Fainting Excessive sweating Frequent colds, flu, other infections Constipation/diarrhoea Palpitations	Difficulty in making decisions. Inability to concentrate. Worrying Bad dreams Impaired judgement Making mistakes Persistent negative thoughts
Emotional signs	Behavioural signs
Anger Irritability Moodiness Tension Sensitivity to criticism Drained, no enthusiasm Job dissatisfaction Reduced self-esteem Loss of confidence	Restlessness Disturbed sleep/insomnia Drinking more alcohol Smoking more Not looking after oneself Lying to cover up mistakes. Reckless driving Anti-social behaviour Reduced sex drive

Policy

- The Council will work jointly with the Clerk to identify all workplace stressors using a risk assessment process designed to eliminate or control the risks from stress. This risk assessment will be reviewed at appropriate intervals.
- The Council and the Clerk will familiarise themselves with good management practices relating to stress.
- The Council will provide its employees affected by stress caused by either work or external factors with confidential counselling.

Responsibilities

Line Manager (Those designated with this role)

- Conduct and implement recommendations of the risk assessment within their jurisdiction.
- Ensure good communication between the Council and its employees, particularly where there are organisational and procedural changes.
- Ensure employees are fully trained to discharge their duties.
- Ensure employees are provided with meaningful developmental opportunities.
- Monitor workloads to ensure that employees are not overloaded.
- Monitor working hours and overtime to ensure employees are not overworking.
- Monitor holidays to ensure employees are taking their full entitlement.
- Ensure that bullying and harassment is not tolerated within their jurisdiction.
- Be vigilant and offer additional support to an employee who is experiencing stress outside work, eg bereavement or separation.

The Council will engage professional support in conducting the risk assessment and the provision of advice in relation to the management of employees who are suffering from the effects of stress.

Employees

- Raise issues of concern with the line manager or those engaged by the Council to provide professional support.
- Accept opportunities for counselling when recommended.
