A confidential staffing issue was explained to the Councillors by the Clerk for information purposes. This issue had been completely unexpected and took up a considerable amount of the Clerk and Deputy-Clerk’s time, during the previous fortnight. The Clerk apologised that November’s Full Council Meeting was unable to take place but the confidential matter had to take priority and may continue to have to be addressed over the coming months. Members of the Council understood the seriousness of the work that had been carried out. The Chair thanked the Clerk for her diligence in addressing the situation.
