Minute No. 75 – To discuss the requirements of polling cards for the by-election in Tumble Ward and Cross Hands Ward on 21.08.2025.

The Chief Officer informed the Council that a by-election has been called for both the Tumble and Cross Hands Ward. The Chief Officer explained the process to all members present. The Chief Officer stated that Carmarthenshire County Council work out the costings for polling cards and the cost will be around £6,000.

The Chief Officer provided the following statistics to the members present:

- By-election in the Tumble Ward May 2024.
Polling cards purchased.
15.12% turnout.
- By-election in the Tumble Ward March 2023.
No polling cards purchased.
14.53% turnout.
- By-election in the Cross Hands Ward.
No polling cards purchased.
13.8% turnout.

The Chief Officer informed the members present that the Law states that Llannon Community Council are required to advertise the by-election on the noticeboard and their website.

The Chair asked the Council whether the members present wish to purchase polling cards for the upcoming by-election.

PO stated that he would rather take the money off the next budget and doesn't think that LICC need to purchase polling cards.

SB agreed with PO and stated that the money would be better spent elsewhere.

PO proposed that the Council do not purchase polling cards. SB seconded the proposal. All members present in favour.

Resolved that the Council do not purchase polling cards for the by-election in Tumble Ward and Cross Hands Ward on 21.08.2025.

The Chair closed the meeting at 6.56pm
